Cookie Policy

Last revised: 31-05-2021

This Cookie Policy describes how Stunlock Studios AB, 556808-8198 ("Stunlock" or "we" in any form) uses cookies on our website. Stunlock uses cookies on stunlock.com to be able to provide necessary functions and improve the user experience of the website.

1. About cookies

A cookie is a file containing an identifier (a string of letters and numbers) that is sent by a web server to a web browser and is stored by the browser. The identifier is then sent back to the server each time the browser requests a page from the server. Cookies may store user preferences and other information to enhance your experience on our website.

Cookies do not typically contain any information that personally identifies a user, but personal data that we store about you may be linked to the information stored in and obtained from cookies. Please also see our Privacy Policy with regard to how we process personal data.

2. What types of cookies we use

Cookies may be either "persistent" cookies or "session" cookies: a persistent cookie will be stored by a web browser and will remain valid until its set expiry date, unless deleted by the user before the expiry date; a session cookie, on the other hand, will expire at the end of the user session, when the web browser is closed.

The purposes of cookies also include:

- Strictly necessary cookies: These cookies are necessary for you to be able to navigate within our website and to utilize its basic features.
- Analytics and statistics cookies: These cookies provides us with analytical information and statistics for the use of our websites and the services we provide.
- Preference cookies: These cookies provide you with certain functions – for example to remember your settings such as language preferences.

- Third-party cookies: These cookies are provided by third-parties. Please note that this Cookie Policy does not cover, and that we are not responsible for third-party cookies. We recommend that you consult the privacy and cookie policy of such third-party cookie provider.

3. List of active cookies used

Name	Type	Vendor	Expiration	Description
Language preference	Preference cookie	Stunlock Studios	Session	Used in the blog website to display blog entries in the user's preferred language if available.

4. Managing cookies

Most browsers allow you to refuse to accept cookies and to delete cookies. The methods for doing so vary from browser to browser, and from version to version. You can however obtain up-to-date information about blocking and deleting cookies via these links:
